KAUFMAN WINS
LONG BATTLE.

Jim Barry's Seconds Threw
Towel Into Ring.

Thirty-nine Rounds of Hard,
Bruising Fight.

Neither Man Shows Enough
Class to Attract.

Al Kaufman beat Jim Barry in the thirty-ninth round at the Jeffries arena last night. Barry's trainer, Teddy Murphy, throwing a towel into the ring in token of defeat when he saw his man was beaten. This was the unsatisfactory ending of a long battle that lasted from 9:40 o'clock until 12:20 o'clock, or almost three hours, and the 4000 fight bugs who sat in the cold pavilion and missed the last rounds could have no complaint to make, for it was a hard, bruising, bloody scrap from start to finish, with little or no stalling.

Manager Murphy gave as his reason for throwing up the sponge, the fact that both of Barry's hands had been broken for fifteen rounds before the finish, and it was a hopeless fight that Barry was putting up, with little or no chance to win. Defeat was all the more bitter for him, for he practically had the better of things for twenty-five rounds, or until about the time his hands are alleged to have given way.

While Kaufman won, there is very little credit in the victory for him, and the showing he made puts him entirely out of the running for the championship class. He did not show any of the earmarks of a champion, and Langford, Burns or Johnson would doubtless find him very easy. He was wild, and after the thirtieth round his blows seemed to lack steam, for with Barry really helpless, Kaufman could not knock him out, but he was not.

AL'S PERSISTENCY.
Kaufman was always on the aggressive and chased Barry around the ring in every round. His persistency brought him many hard knocks, for when he chased Barry into a corner, the smaller man would rush out and invariably landed hard on the big fellow. Barry had Al's cheeks puffed and his mouth bleeding early in the game, and on several occasions had him groggy and staggering from rights to the stomach and left swings to the jaw.

Kaufman had the better of the weights by ten or fifteen pounds, the figures being, announced as 175 for Barry and 184 for Kaufman, and this weight told in the clinches and Barry became very tired in the last ten rounds from the wrestling.

Kaufman knocked Barry down in the thirty-seventh round with a right cross on the head, and Barry remained down for seven seconds. He got up and flailed through the round and this was the beginning of the end, for in the next two rounds poor Barry, tired and bloody, and with his left eye black and half shut, did little but to return blows. Kaufman hammered him at will in the face and stomach. These blows lacked steam, but with Barry helpless, his manager threw the towel into the ring to save a possible knockout.

Kaufman came out of the battle with both cheeks swollen, his eyes crowsed and his upper lip bunched up, while the principal damage that Barry showed was that bad eye.

For the first twenty-five rounds Kaufman looked like a sure loser, but after that his strength began to tell over Barry and he gradually wore down the smaller fellow, who had no gas to protect himself with or to land effective punishment. Notwithstanding this, Barry came back with a bright flash in the thirtieth round and hammered Kaufman, and in the thirty-fourth Kaufman was groggy and staggering from rights to the stomach and lefts to the head. This was only a flash, however.

LITTLE CLASS.
While the battle was one of the toughest seen here in months, it did not show much from a critical point of view. Barry was continually on the defensive, and he had to be, for Kaufman is much taller, weighs more, and has a much longer reach. Many of Kaufman's blows were straight lefts that Barry ran into as he came ducking into a clinch. But men were tough and woolly at times in their swinging and both wrestled considerably in a number of rounds. While Barry apparently had the better of the infighting, Kaufman's surplus weight told the former. Kaufman could not show his best at boxing, for Barry was always running away. The fight as a whole showed that a good little man cannot beat a good big one.

The betting was 2 to 1 in favor of Kaufman, but his friends took many a long and anxious breath before he began to show anything. Of the first ten rounds, Barry had the better of eight; one was even, and the other was Kaufman's. There was much fierce slugging, for the crowd yelled for little Barry continually and evidently wished him to beat Kaufman.

Barry added around, circling the ring with Kaufman after him, and the principal part of the scrapping was when Kaufman chased Barry into a corner and the latter had to fight his way out. This he did with a vengeance, but in doing it frequently ran into Kaufman's long left arm and this finally blackened Barry's eye.

SLOW BEGINNER.
Kaufman is a slow beginner and he certainly needed some steam in the first ten rounds, for Barry hammered him around at a great rate, although Al was always the aggressor. They fought like amateurs at times and swung as wildly as any preliminary boy fight. Barry was too short for Kaufman's wings, and Al was too tall for Barry to reach him with an effective punch. The little big fellow did his best work with rights to the stomach, and almost invariably when he landed one of these he came through with a left swing to the head about the same time. He has this habit of guessing all the time, and it doubtless needed all of Billy Delaney's coaching to make the latter make his medicine in the first ten rounds.

to do much damage himself. In the thirty-fifth, both men staggered hard and it was a very even thing, both staggering at the end from hard blows and fatigue.

There and finally came in the thirty-ninth, and it was a merciful thing for Barry's manager to give up, for his poor game boy could not have lasted much longer.

About 4000 fight bugs saw the mill and the receipts were $2548.25.

There was but one six-round preliminary, and in this Jack O'Keefe easily beat Muggsy Mullins in a poor exhibition. Mullins, knowing nothing about the game.

TALKING IT OVER.
SLUHS PACIFIC SLOPE.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH.]
SYDNEY (N.S.W.) Dec. 30.—William H. Wood, Chief Secretary of New South Wales, in an interview today, said that the fight between Kaufman and Barry was being given serious consideration by the government authorities as the Burns-Johnson contest last Saturday savored of more brutal and repulsive than scientific.

Dr. Woods said an attempt would be made to amend the laws so as to make New South Wales less of a happy hunting ground for securing big stakes as in the last contest, as he said, that the fight between Kaufman and Barry should correspond with the Pacific Slope regarding pugilistic undertakings.

However, as a result of the low character of pugilism indicated by the fight on Saturday, the police would prevent any further contests here between Burns and Johnson.

ALSO DRAWING LINES.
KETCHER THINKS AGAIN.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
GRAND RAPIDS (Mich.) Dec. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Stanley Ketchel, white middleweight champion of the world, who recently expressed his desire to go after the heavyweight title, has given up the idea since Johnson has defeated Burns. Ketchel has drawn the color line and will have nothing to do with men of dusky skin.

Why should I issue a challenge to a negro, he claimed, "when such men as Sullivan, Dempsey, Jeffries and the best white men have drawn the color line. I might, perhaps, if I needed a fight, but I don't want to fight a colored man in the ring. I have never thought in the proper thing, and I have been run, and any matter that he lowers himself in the respect of his associates."

HOT AIR ATTELL.
DISDAINS JIM DRISCOLL.
NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] According to Abe Attehl, featherweight champion of America, "Bis" Mackey, the Ohio boy, was a "poor match for him at best," as he says. Attehl will leave here Saturday for Goldfield, Nev., where on January 1 he is to meet Fred Goetz, the Cripple Creek boy. In discussing that contest tonight, Abe spoke of it as easy money.

"I am confident that Mackey, poor fellow, is a coward, and very near losing the title," he said. "At the same time, how can I refuse to take money offered to me by fight promoters? I will return to New Orleans in February, during Mardi Gras week, to take on Jim Driscoll, the Encephalitis champion. 'Til show Driscoll, just as I showed Mackey, in eight rounds," he asserted.

Loughrey Beats Russell.
PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Young Loughrey tonight beat Turk Russell in a hard fifteen-round bout at the Olympic Club, Easton. From the start the fight was Loughrey's, and at close quarters he battered Russell's head and body with his jab, uppercut and swings. When the final bell sounded, Russell was badly used up, while Loughrey did not have a mark.

Fight for Dalton.
Kid Dalton and Maurice Sayers of this city, who are well-known fighters here, will probably be matched for a battle in Bakersfield on the night of January 18. Teddy Murphy, manager of Sayers, is anxious to make a match between the boys, and if they can agree on weights the valley club will match the winner against Leonard Lauder for Bakersfield on the night of February 22. Lauder is at present in Hanford, but is expected in Bakersfield next week to take a position in the oil fields.

New Year's Fites.
Three boxing contests, two of six rounds and one of twenty rounds, are scheduled at the Venice Athletic Club for New Year's evening. The main event is to be between Hobo Dougherty of Milwaukee and Dick Winter of Ocean Park. Recent Los Angeles winners against Moore of Denver, and Kid Williams of Redondo against Givens of Denver, will furnish the other bouts.

O'Brien and Kubiak.
PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Jack O'Brien, who has been scheduled as a prospective challenger of Jack Johnson, will meet Al Kubiak, the Michigan heavyweight, in a six-round battle at the National Athletic Club on the night of January 6.

Jimmy Walsh Arrives.
Eddie Keenan, Joe Woodman and Jimmy Walsh arrived in Los Angeles yesterday afternoon, from San Francisco, where they have been for a month. Walsh says he had a bad cold when he fought Monte Attell and that next time he will fight him. He asserts Attell is a better man than he is given credit for, and that in twelve rounds he made a good showing with Owen Moran. He wants to meet the little Hebrew again.

One Cent for "Liners."
The established price of 1 cent per word will be maintained for the new series of the Times on Jan. 1.

Wait for "Midwinter."
Watch for it! Wait for it! The Times' Annual Midwinter Number—the largest and handsomest souvenir issue ever published on this Coast. It will be printed in magazine form and will be replete with carefully edited information about the city and the Southwest, accompanied by a myriad of illustrations. It will circulate all over the civilized world—an edition of nearly 100,000, and as an advertisement medium it will be unrivaled. Out January 1st.

Prosecutor Eddie to Begin Campaign Today.

San Francisco Papers Come
Under the Law.

Nothing in reference to betting on horse races, tips as to probable winners, or matter that in any way will give a comparative estimate of horses which have run or are to run as any race may hereafter be published in any newspaper or pamphlet placed on sale within the corporate limits of Los Angeles.

This affects not only the Los Angeles daily newspapers and tip publications, but the San Francisco newspapers sold here, and any other such publications giving tips and racing news relative to the betting. It also probably will make the prohibition of the daily form chart as gotten out by the racing association.

Such, in effect, is the order issued by Judge Eddie, City Prosecutor, last night, to go into operation today. Eddie has notified all the publishers doing business here and informed the managements that violations would be prosecuted. He said that it might take him two or three days to work up the evidence that there were violations of the city ordinance, but that prosecutions surely would follow.

Eddie bases his action on the decision handed down by the Superior Court on appeal from the Police Court, which upheld the city ordinance which includes prohibitions of the publication of tips and other statistics on board, and at the race track. No opinion has been expressed as to whether Los Angeles papers are to be sold outside the city limits, and it is probable that papers will print their own statistics on board, and at the race track. No opinion has been expressed as to whether Los Angeles papers are to be sold outside the city limits, and it is probable that papers will print their own statistics on board, and at the race track.

Prosecutor Eddie is of the opinion that any kind of publication may be made of one horse in a race, if desired, but nothing must be said of the others in reference to the betting—not even as to the list of horses. The ordinance is a jurisdiction is claimed over publications printed and sold outside the city limits, and it is probable that papers will print their own statistics on board, and at the race track. No opinion has been expressed as to whether Los Angeles papers are to be sold outside the city limits, and it is probable that papers will print their own statistics on board, and at the race track.

ARCADIA RACES.
FORGOTTEN NAG WINS.
Three winners of ridden by Schilling and the fearful joke attempt by this rider on Meelick in the fourth race were about the only features of the card at the Arcadia races yesterday, if one leaves out the stalling "form reversal" of nag called Whidden, just before the race. The sports the overlooked Schilling's many weird rides and gambled on the horse because he was the best in the race. He was so much the best that he led easily all the way by two lengths, but in front of the grand stand Schilling stopped riding for some reason, and Meelick to the finish. Just before the start some of the bookies took all the money on the field as a prospective challenger of Jack Johnson, will meet Al Kubiak, the Michigan heavyweight, in a six-round battle at the National Athletic Club on the night of January 6.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS.

RAISE POOL
FOR BETTING.

Athletic Club Members to Back Deitrich.

Even Money Against Any
One in the Big Field.

Twenty-eight Entries Qualify for the Race.

The members of the L.A.A.C. have formed a pool of $1000 to back Edward Deitrich against any other runner in the Marathon race to Venice tomorrow morning. Every member of the club is confident that Deitrich will repeat his previous performance and finish ahead of the field, and while they are not willing to bet even money that he will win the race, they will wager $1000 in a lump or in divisions, that he will beat any one man that may be picked.

The entry lists closed yesterday morning. Twenty-eight athletes have signed the blanks and paid the entrance fee, and it is expected that all of them will start in the race. Many of the entrants are unknown in local athletic circles, and it is possible that in the bunch there is a dark horse who will spring a surprise.

Deitrich covered the Los Angeles-Venice course in 2h. 1m. when he won the first local Marathon race on Addison Day. He expects to run the distance in much faster time tomorrow. DeWitt Van Court believes the winner will finish in about one hour.

The race is to begin at 9:30 o'clock. The distance from the starting point in front of the L.A.A.C. headquarters at No. 344 South Spring street to the finish at the clubhouse at Venice is 15.5 miles. Deitrich expects to run the first five miles in about thirty minutes, and then gradually increase his gait as he nears the finish. The roads are now in better condition than they were when the last Marathon was held, and after the runners get beyond the city limits it is expected that a very fast race will be maintained.

As in the previous race, each runner will be accompanied by a trainer on a bicycle, who will minister to his wants. However, as the Marathon rules do not permit the trainers to assist the runners until at least five miles have been covered, the men on bicycles will not leave the starting point with the runners.

EMERYVILLE RACES.
BOOGER RED CLEVER SPRINTER.

ORDINARY SHOOTING ON DUCK PRESERVES.

MEDOCRE was the sport in evidence on the duck preserves yesterday morning, and the gunners of the mid-week squad found the shooting inferior to the results obtained the first of the week. During the forenoon the sea was calm, and hardly a breath of air stirred.

The early morning gunners as a rule found the shooting unsatisfactory for several hours, and those who returned before noon had their bags but half full, and but a half-dozen in the entire visitors' squad shot the limit before the wind started up. After noon a fresh cool breeze began to blow in from the ocean, and the ducks came in a steady flight, affording the patient members excellent shooting.

Four gunners got the limit on the Blue Wing Club, while three others shot from twenty-five to thirty birds apiece. W. T. Glassell, reported the shooting was not quite up to the standard of the last week, and the boys had to stay in the blinds a good bit longer to get a nice bag. Teal were scarce, but spoonbills and gadwall were numerous, and a generous sprinkling of grebe was also shot. The limit men were Lee Stephens, Ed Allen, W. D. Campbell, Hugh Glassell, and C. E. Hunt; Ed Allen, W. F. Hall and W. T. Glassell also making good bags.

On the Cerritos grounds the visiting gunners worked hard to get satisfactory results, and added to the pleasure of the sport the birds got a thorough soaking in the fog on the passage down in an auto. Spoonbills and gadwall formed the main portion of the bag, a few grebe also being shot. W. L. Graves drew the largest bag with twenty-six, W. L. Graves, Jr., and twenty-two, O. H. Hofferth, twenty, Charles McFarland, thirteen, W. D. Stephens, eleven, and Charles Wood, nine.

Five gunners visited the Chico preserve, and Ed Maier was the only member of the entire Wednesday squad to shoot a mallard. Spring and gadwall predominated in the bags, and after 11 o'clock the shooting was quite better. Ed Maier and Eddie Maier each got the limit, Ed Goller shot twenty-nine, and two guests averaged twenty-seven. T. E. Gibbon, Count Jaro Von Schmidt and four guests formed the gunners' contingent on the Bolsa Chico grounds, the boys averaging twenty. The shooting was poor until the sun breeze started up about noon, when the birds flew in a steady flight, and the bags filled rapidly.

The sunset squad split up about 10 o'clock, and those who returned early got but half the limit, while G. Paggi, J. E. Carr and Wilson remained all the afternoon, and all three got the legal allowance. Dr. Dillingham returned with eighteen, N. Biehl got fifteen, W. A. Collins sixteen and Terry Mays fifteen, while Jack McQuarry shot thirty-three.

The Dominguez aggregation included J. J. Jenkins, Jim Burke, Harry Maxson and George Carson, Burke and Jenkins shooting the limit, and Maxson and Carson each getting twenty-seven. Spoonbills and gadwall shared principally in the bags.

The Westminster Club entertained a quintette of visitors including P. E. Brown, E. A. Feathers, J. M. Elliott, Jr., E. H. Rowley and C. C. Carpenter. The gunners averaged from twenty-five to thirty birds apiece, gadwall being more numerous with a scattering of spring and teal.

H. L. Rivers, with a bag of thirty birds, got in sight on the Golden West grounds, W. H. Stewart shot fifteen, and two guests averaged twenty each. Spring were more numerous than for several weeks, a sprinkling of spoonbills being secured.

Disappointing in the extreme was the sport on the Lomita preserve, and a majority of the visiting members returned to the city with but a scant bag, in comparison to the results brought down last week. M. P. Snyder got but six and decided to drown his chagrin, before the arena last night.

Dr. Rader shot seventeen, W. D. Newell nine, H. W. Lewis twelve and Thomas Haverly eight. Plenty of birds were in sight on the Lomita preserve, but the ducks were not to be entered into visiting the ponds, and after several hours of tireless waiting, bagged by only an occasional shot, the gunners gave up the sport in disgust.

The Center squad boasted two limits secured by George Gordon and V. W. Guerin, while O. E. Schmitt shot twenty-nine and A. H. Cabbitt twenty. Here and elsewhere the birds were scarce, and only the fact that the squad was comparatively small insured the larger returns.

The Canaback contingent included A. E. Morrow with twenty-six, J. Rudisill with twenty, George Hupp with sixteen, and Featherston with thirty and Sam Hall with fourteen. Spring were shot almost exclusively, but a few spoonbills being brought down.

On the Pacific grounds E. W. Davis, P. R. Harris and a visitor enjoyed meager sport all to themselves, and the average was but nineteen. Spoonbills and gadwall were the most plentiful.

WAR DECLARED. COMPROMISE REJECTED BY STATE LEAGUERS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After more than five hours of discussion between the directors of the California State League and the directors of the National League, the compromise offer which had been made by the latter league, and which had been accepted by the former, was rejected by the directors of the National League, and the war was declared.

The meeting, which was held at the St. Francis, was called chiefly at the request of Charles Graham of Sacramento, who was anxious to have the State League accept the final proposition, which meant everything they had asked from the Coasters were the disposition of the three ineligible—Morris, Hackett and Henderson. The Coast League was willing to have these players suspended, but insisted that in new State League territory sold before three years elapsed that half the purchase or draft price must go to the Coast League team that claimed the player.

Morring was dead set against any such offer, but although there was some sentiment in favor of going into organized baseball, as was evidenced by the long session, Morring finally won a majority of the directors over to his way of thinking.

BIDED HIS TIME. SMALL FORTUNE IN HIS POCKET. RACE TRACK MAN IN TROUBLE AT NEW ORLEANS.

Former Bookmaker is Recognized in Train from Los Angeles and is Arrested Charged With Embezzlement of Funds Advanced to Operate Book at City Park.

NEW ORLEANS (La.) Dec. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] William H. Haddock, alias Martin, was arrested tonight on a charge of embezzling $15,000 from R. Lee Riggs, a wealthy lumberman of Patterson, La., three years ago. He was arrested at the Grunwald Hotel, where he registered this morning with a Mrs. Collins, who he said was his sister, and who, on his arrival from Los Angeles, was searched, eighteen $1000 bills were found on him.

Haddock was a bookmaker three years ago and convinced Riggs of the fact to the extent that Riggs gave him $15,000 to open a book at City Park and run it strictly on a legitimate basis. Haddock oversteered the book, and Riggs, who was in the hands of the law, and it is charged that in order to keep his losses he got mixed up in the deal which resulted in several years of legal trouble, and the embezzlement of the Robin Hood race track.

Haddock disappeared after that and has been watching for him ever since. This morning as the train from Los Angeles arrived at New Orleans, Riggs boarded the next train for New Orleans, put the case in the hands of the police and tonight the bookmaker was taken into custody.

Haddock does not deny his identity, his former partnership with Riggs, and his efforts to keep a copy of a program to Matt Winn, president of the American Turf Association, asking for reinstatement.

NEW YEAR'S GOLF.

The Los Angeles Country Club will celebrate the New Year holiday with no less than three golf tournaments. The first and most important one will be a 36-hole stroke play, to continue all day, with 18 holes in the morning and 18 in the afternoon. In addition to this there will be two 18-hole handicap sweepstakes, one in the morning and one in the afternoon, and these will be separate, thus making three events. From the indications there will be a record number of entries.

SUNDAY DORY RACES.

The races for dories will be on again next Sunday off San Pedro, under the auspices of the South Coast Yacht Club, and two events will be sailed. The course of the first will be from a point of view of the southwest corner of the harbor, and a flag; thence to the end of the breakwater; thence around Point Pinos whistling buoy; thence back to the starting point, leaving the flag to port. The start of this race will be at noon. The course of the second race has not been determined yet.

"Good clothes act as a tonic on most men; the mere fact of being smartly dressed is a strong mental stimulant. To the average man, shabby or ill-fitting clothes are a source of constant worry, which frets away his energy and takes the keen edge off his wits."

Wish we could capitalize the total asset of added efficiency of the men we've clothed in this town; estimate the value we've created for them by supplying these good things to wear. It would mean a great sum.

FIRE DON'T STOP HIM.

Streicher, the Sample Shoe Man, Opens New Upstairs Store.

New Shoes, New Ideas and Values Better Than Ever—Store Opens Today in the Bumiller Bldg., 430 S. Broadway.

Streicher, the shoe man, who was on the second floor of the burned building, 414½ S. Broadway, opposite the Broadway, has made adjustment with the fire insurance companies and also has sold all of the damaged shoes and opened a new store on the fifth floor of the Bumiller Building, occupying rooms 505 and 506. Fresh new shoes just from the best factories in the country, and every pair for women sells for $2, men's $2.50. These are not so-called sample shoes. Streicher says he will sell you the greatest values at $2 and $2.50 you ever bought. He has opened up in this fine fireproof building because the insurance rates are low—it is safer, too, and he is upstairs, where rents are low and can thus afford to give better values—rooms 505-506, Bumiller Building, 430 South Broadway, the 3d entrance south of the old store that was burned. Take the elevator and see him today.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Dorr Creditors' Meeting.

A creditors' meeting to discuss certain phases of the bankruptcy of Fred Dorr, "broker" stock broker, was continued yesterday for two weeks.

Reception and Ball.

A reception and ball will be given tonight in the Fraternal Brotherhood building, which will be attended by people from all parts of Southern California.

Fire in Henna Building.

Patrolman J. D. Cornwall discovered and extinguished a small fire in the Henna building at 6:45 o'clock last night. It was caused by the explosion of a gasoline lamp in the office of Dr. T. Caye, a dentist.

Dispensation from Abstinence.

Bishop Conaty received a telegram last night from D. Falconio, Apostolic Delegate at Washington, announcing that owing to the fact that New Year falls on Friday, the Holy Father has granted a dispensation from abstinence on this day, to all Catholics in the world.

Eclectic College Diplomas.

The graduation exercises of the Eclectic Business College were held last night, at which the members of the class received diplomas. A social and refreshments followed the ceremonies, which took place at the school, No. 1629 South Main street.

Watch Night.

Sunset Chapter, O.E.S., will give a weight and measure party tonight at their hall, corner Pico and 23rd streets, under the management of Mrs. Clara I. Guthrie and her assistants. Mrs. H. E. Stanley will have charge of the weighing and Mrs. Ella Weaver of the measuring.

Beta Theta Pi Dinner.

The annual dinner of the Beta Theta Pi college fraternity will be held next Saturday evening at 7 o'clock at Levy's. All active and alumni members of the fraternity are invited to be present. Steps will be taken to form an alumni association including all Betas in Southern California.

Appears Insane.

T. E. Palmer, formerly a salesman at the Walkover Shoe Store, was arrested on the charge of insanity yesterday. He had a room at the Roslyn Hotel and stated that he was engaged in writing the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth degrees of masonry. Later he created a disturbance. Palmer lives at Hollywood.

They Come in.

The postmaster received a telegram from Washington yesterday stating that the Alhambra, Tropic and Glendale postoffices will become a part of the Los Angeles office, beginning February 1. Some time ago a recommendation was made to the department to the effect that the three towns would be benefited by a free delivery system. Mounted carriers will be used in addition to those who make deliveries on foot.

Second Assistant for Fries.

Lieut. Arthur R. Ehrenbeck, Corps of Engineers, U.S.A., is to be second assistant to Capt. A. A. Fries, engineer in charge of his district. Capt. Fries stated last night that the order was made for the benefit of the young officer's health. Since his service in the Philippines he has been in poor health, and at his own request he was relieved of duty at the Washington, D. C. barracks and sent here. Lieut. C. T. Leeds will continue here as Capt. Fries' principal assistant.

Y.Z.A. Good Time Dance.

The Jewish Young Zionists' Association will give a ball at Kramer's Hall tonight, for which they have issued a novel invitation and programme. The invitation is a facsimile of a street-railway transfer check, and is issued by the Y.Z.A. Railroad Company, organizers of the "Good Time Line." The programme is in the form of a booklet, containing twenty-two coupons, each representing a dance on the Good Time Line, leaving a blank for the name of the partner. The coupons read: "To Hollywood," "To Watts," etc., and, finally, "To Oyster Bay."

BREVITIES.

The Times Midwinter Number worth waiting for. Each succeeding year sees a marked improvement in the appearance, quality of text, beauty of illustrations and general typographical excellence of The Times' New Year's Annuals. Months of labor by a corps of expert writers and photographers have resulted in the most surpassing compilation of authentic descriptions, articles about the whole Southwest, and their appearance in this single publication will be the crowning achievement of all The Times' successes in the publication of special numbers. The issue will consist of 154 pages, in magazine form, with fifty full-page illustrations. You can read the practical aid in the development of this country by a wide dissemination of this great newspaper. It will be far superior to anything of the kind published elsewhere in Los Angeles, and well worth waiting for. Price 10 cents per copy; postpaid 12 cents. More than 100,000 copies will be distributed, and it will be a splendid medium for real estate and development enterprise advertising.

To Let—Handsomely fitted office and retail space on West Main, also basement, in premises occupied by new branch office of The Times at 631 S. Spring st.; splendid location; suitable for California products display and well adapted for headquarters of excursions, teaming or railroad enterprises, as well as painting exhibits. Established information bureau now conducted in connection. For particulars and rental apply premises to Manager's office in the Times Building.

Remember the slogan: "Buy and Boost Home Products." For daily reference, see page 9, Part II of The Times, containing list of wide-awake manufacturers, under the heading: "Made in Southern California." You will find there are manufacturers of practically all luxuries here—manufacturers of things to eat and drink—things for the home, the factory, the office and the farm. Buy them! Try them! There are none better. Buy and Boost, and keep your money at home where it will do you and yours the most good!

One Cent For "Liners"—The established price of one cent per word will apply to classified announcements inserted in the big news sheets of The Times on January 1. All editions sold on that day will contain the usual two news parts of the daily paper, in which will be printed all "want ads" under their various classifications. Considerable extra circulation will be afforded patrons who desire to place announcements, either display or classified, in the news sheets appearing on New Year's Day.

Times' Cook Book No. 3 ready today, and until the edition is exhausted, is placed on sale the largest, most elaborate and comprehensive cook book of the series issued by The Times. The 318 recipes for hot Spanish and Mexican dishes and the hygienic department are big features of the publication. The recipes, brought out by The Times' prize-winning contest, are generally from Southern California housewives and noted chefs. Price 25 cents; by mail 5 cents additional. Address: The Times, Los Angeles.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.
The Supply Committee of the Council has abolished the place of the young woman stenographer who was sought at the race track in defiance of the Civil Service rules.
Justice Pierce gave judgment yesterday for Charles M. Kniebe in his suit against his brother, Henry Kniebe, on a board bill.
On grounds of desertion, Judge James yesterday granted Attorney N. P. Bundy a divorce from Mrs. Ethyl M. Bundy.
Judge Monroe yesterday gave judgment for J. W. Riggins against John T. Sweatt over an exchange of California for Texas realty.

AT THE CITY HALL.
SORRY NOW SHE BROKE RULE.
SUPPLY COMMITTEE ABOLISHES ERRING CLERK'S PLACE.

"Young Woman Who Dared Go to the Arcadia Races After Civil Service Rule Forbade It Cannot Be Tried Because Her Employment is at an End."

Dr. D. W. Edelman, president of the Civil Service Commission, satisfied himself yesterday, which of two young women employed in the office of the Building and Supply Committee of the Council went to the Arcadia races on Christmas in violation of the Civil Service rules. He called at the office yesterday, and made sure that the young woman is Mrs. Sadie Connelly, who has been a clerk under emergency appointment for three months. She has not been at her desk this week and is reported sick.

There may never be a trial of her before the commission, because she has been only an emergency appointee, and was not really under Civil Service jurisdiction, her friends hold. They say she had been warned not to go to the races, but insisted. One of her companions was the wife of a Councilman. She is now reported sorry for her bravado.

But even if the Civil Service Commission does not cite her it is not sure that it will ever have the chance for the reprimand, for Mrs. Connelly's services expire today and the Supply Committee has not asked its renewal. It is understood the committee believes the position is no longer necessary. An examination for this position was held ten days ago, but the result has not yet been announced. If the committee disposes of it, the eligible list will be useless.

There is a probability that several other City Hall clerks will be called before the board for violations of the rules other than visiting the race track. One of these cases is now before the commission, and is being investigated. The case of the policeman accused of carrying bets to the race track is being investigated also, and it is likely a citation will be issued next week calling him before the commission.

The late activity in the enforcement of the Civil Service rules has caused many city employees to study the rules and walk carefully. They are also familiarizing themselves with the ordinance requiring their presence in their places of employment from 8 o'clock in the morning until 5 o'clock in the evening. A belief that the commission was keeping tabs on the hours of the numerous employees has brought many of them down earlier than for months.

NO "JOY RIDING."
POLICEMEN NOT AUTOMOBILE.
The anticipation of "joy riding" that aroused many City Hall lesser officials has ended. "Joy riding" is automobiling for pleasure and the anticipation was based on the likely purchase of an auto by the Council for its use and that of the several commissions. But the Councilmen seem to have entirely changed their minds. When it was figured that the cost would be $7500 during the coming year the Councilmen agreed that it would be much better to put this money into additions to the police force, and there it will go. The bids received Tuesday are likely to be reported on adversely by the Finance Committee next week and at the same time there will probably be a recommendation for the appropriation of $10,000 to pay twenty additional policemen for the next six months. With such action the hope of the "joy riders" will be destroyed.

Hope-street Wall Approved.
The Board of Public Works yesterday approved the plans of City Engineer Hamilton for the stone retaining wall on the east side of Hope street, north of the Third-street tunnel. The plans provide for a stairway in the middle and a platform. The Board decided that the limit of cost to the city would be $18,000 and all over that must be met by a Vrooman Act district amendment. The cost will approximate $23,000.

Busy Palomares Likes Work.
One City Hall official does not like to be idle. Recently P. J. Palomares, chief of the department of street assessment, found his force up with its work and he asked the Board of Public Works to provide something more. Yesterday the City Engineer gave him the lower Figueroa-street sewer district for computation. This will keep Palomares busy for some time.

Hooper-avenue Petrolithic.
Because residents of Hooper avenue, between Twenty-eighth street and the city limits, protested against a macadam pavement, City Engineer Hamilton yesterday recommended that the improvement be changed to petrolithic paving, with brick gutters, cement curb and sidewalks, to meet the wishes of the protesters. The Board of Public Works endorsed the change.

Tale of a Monkey.
When you can buy a $25 monkey, a real Rhesus monkey with rings on its tail, for $3, Park Superintendent Morley believes it is a bargain. The Eastlake Zoo needs a monkey and Morley tried yesterday to buy a grimacing lady Simian for $3, but when the demand was presented at the Auditor's office it was answered with the cold mandate of the law requiring competition. And because of this mandate the park department missed a chance to buy a $25 monkey for $3.

ited the river bed near the Los Felis bridge yesterday to inspect a region where a proposed street has been offered to the city. The committee will not report until the City Engineer has made a survey, as it is feared acceptance of the street would commit the city to property lines that would lose it several acres of river bed.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.
WHEN BROTHER IS A BOARDER.
ONE MONTH THE LIMIT FOR A LEGAL VISIT.

Justice Gives Judgment for Host for Three Months' Board and Lodging Money from Relative Who Overstays His Welcome—Decision Defines When a Guest Isn't.

The length of time necessary to convert a visitor into a "paying guest" was judicially determined by Justice Pierce yesterday. The court held that a visit may be as long as a month, but that when the visitor stays over that time in a man's home, he ceases to be a visitor and is legally chargeable for board and lodging.

Charles M. Kniebe brought suit against his brother, Henry Kniebe, for four months' board at $20 a month. After a month or more had elapsed, brother Henry wrote to him from Oakland that he was sick and needed a change of climate. The Los Angeles brother then wrote to his Oakland relative, inviting him to come and live with the Kniebe family in Los Angeles. He wrote also that his brother might visit with him here until he could get work.

Henry Kniebe accepted the invitation and became an inmate of his brother's home where he lived for four months. After a month or more had elapsed, he secured work. It was testified. He paid his brother about $18, and then refused to settle for the board and lodging money. He had received a visit. Then Charles Kniebe became wroth and put his bill in the hands of a collection agency. The suit was tried yesterday and Henry Kniebe urged his own defense that he could not be charged with board, as he was a "visitor" in his brother's household.

"This case appears to hinge on the problem when Kniebe ceased to be a guest and became a boarder," remarked Justice Pierce. "In view of the testimony, it appears that a month is sufficient time for a visit. The other three months may properly be charged against the defendant as a boarder."

WIFE WRITES LETTERS.
HUSBAND GETS DIVORCE.
Attorney Nathan P. Bundy was, yesterday, granted by Judge James, a divorce from Mrs. Ethyl M. Bundy, grounds of desertion.

Bundy testified that he was married in September, 1904. When he returned home the evening of October 31, last, he was greatly surprised to find that his wife had packed up her belongings and left. On the kitchen table he found a note from her saying that he would never see her again, and that he would be useless for him to search for her.

A search of the house resulted in his finding a receipt for a letter box in her name at the postoffice. Further search revealed that her trunk had been shipped to San Francisco the day of her departure. As Bundy had a general power of attorney from his wife, he secured from the postoffice authorities three letters in her name, letter-box among them. One was from Jones A. Lumden, a street car conductor of Portland, Or.

The contents of the letter were such that Bundy left for Portland and employed detectives to locate Lumden and his wife. He found them living together. He found them in the place Mrs. Bundy told him, but would not return to him, but would stay with Lumden.

SETS ASIDE DEAL.
COURT HOLDS EXCHANGE VOID.
Litigation involving about $400,000 worth of California and Texas ranch property between J. W. Riggins and John T. Sweatt, was decided in favor of Riggins, by Judge Monroe, yesterday.

Last August Riggins entered into negotiations with Sweatt for a trade of Riggins' 750-acre Covina ranch, and the personal property on it, worth in all about $200,000. He was to take in exchange Sweatt's Ward county, Tex. ranch, worth also about $200,000. Deeds and bills of sale were executed by both parties to the trade and placed in escrow with J. C. Odell of the firm of C. R. Guthrie and Company, Los Angeles. Odell went to Texas with Riggins and, after an examination of the titles to Sweatt's property, delivered to Sweatt the deeds to Riggins' ranch and accepted deeds to Sweatt's property.

day. When asked whether he had anything to say, Machuca said, "Oh, very well."

JUDGES MEET. All the judges of the Superior Court held an hour's conference yesterday afternoon in Judge James' chambers. They discussed the assignment of cases and arrangement of work for the coming year, as well as possible additions to the rules of court, but no positive action was taken.

GETS DAMAGES. A jury in Department Seven yesterday awarded S. W. Slinkard $1500 damages in his suit against the Huntington-Redondo company for $4800, alleged due for the death of horses rented by Slinkard to the defendant.

ASKS INJUNCTION. Alleging that the directors of the Puritas Laundry Company illegally voted to increase the capital stock from $50,000 to $210,000, J. F. Riddle, a stockholder, yesterday filed suit in the Superior Court against the company and others, to enjoin them from carrying the proposed increase of capital stock into effect.

EXAMINE WITNESSES. Police Commissioners Turf and Woodell, Sam Schenck, Herbert D. Kennedy, J. Greenwald, N. Biderman, J. T. Sackett, John Armentrout and Auditor H. G. Dow yesterday examined the grand jury, which meets again Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

REASON LOST. Emil Brule, who came here some months ago from Denver for his wife's health, and subsequently committed to Patton by the Lunacy Commission yesterday, Brule was violent against his wife, and believed that he was about to be hung because he owed some person $11.

CAUGHT AGAIN. James Roddick, a Sherman druggist, was captured early yesterday morning by Chief Detective Goodrich, one-half of the members of the District Attorney's detective force, in a raid upon his establishment, in a suit to enforce his charge of conducting a "blind pig," and will be arraigned in the Pasadena Justice Court, where he is already under $2000 bail on like charges. Roddick was fined $200 last September for conducting a blind pig, and was arrested again yesterday morning. Just before his arrest yesterday morning, a masked man over his drug store, entered his place to get something to drink. Roddick looked them in and turned off the lights. But when he seized a chair and broke the front window, through which the women escaped.

GOODWIN DIVIDES. Nat Goodwin, the actor, has given his wife, Edna Goodrich, one-half of the income from his property, stocks and bonds, valued at $221,000, and the deed covering the transaction has been filed with County Recorder Logan. The instrument makes Master T. H. Dudley of Ocean Park, trustee. It was executed in London, 14 last. The principal real estate conveyed to the trustee is the Lafayette apartment building in San Francisco, which is valued at $100,000. Goodwin's Ocean Park property, valued at $15,000, is made up of stock and securities, valued at $116,000. Dudley is to manage the estate and pay the income to Mrs. Goodwin, whose address is given as the Plaza Hotel, New York.

PURE FOOD LAW. S. A. W. Carver, president and manager of the Crescent Cream Company, pleaded guilty to a violation of the pure food law in Justice Sumnerfield's court yesterday. He paid $25 fine. The specific charge was that the cream from his concern only had 11.8 per cent. of butter fat, when the regulations of the Agricultural Department demand 14 per cent.

WARNER CASES. The charges against Attorney A. D. Warner of issuing a worthless $500 check to A. D. Myers, last August, was dismissed in Justice Sumnerfield's court yesterday. A similar charge against Warner, involving a check for $25, given to Dudley W. Robinson, will be argued before Justice Sumnerfield January 6.

INCORPORATIONS. Articles of incorporation were filed with the County Clerk yesterday by the Electro Therapeutic Manufacturing Company, capital stock, $25,000; La Costa Oil Company, capital stock, $100,000; Golden State Laundry Company, capital stock, $50,000.

PAYS HER FINE.
Wife Who Tries to Frighten Husband into Leaving Her Is Rescued by Him from Jail.

Because she loved her husband so much that she did not want to hurt him, Mrs. Eliza Newman, simply pointed a revolver in his direction and nearly scared him to death.

Yesterday the woman told a pitiful story when given a hearing in Justice Chambers' Police Court. "I loved my husband more than I could tell," said Mrs. Newman on the witness stand. "We could not get along together. We quarreled and said harsh things and then it came to a separation. We parted. But I still loved him. I thought that if I threatened violence he might return to me. I met him at the postoffice. I did not try to shoot him. I just pointed the gun in his direction and then they arrested me."

"If I had wanted to kill him, I had ample opportunities for so doing and I am a good shot with a revolver," Mrs. Newman was fined $10, after pleading guilty to a charge of carrying a concealed weapon.

Her husband, J. E. Newman, who caused her arrest, was in court at the time. He asked permission to speak to his wife a few moments and this was granted.

The conversation was held in low tones, and then Newman paid his wife's fine and she was released. The husband had received her promise to leave Los Angeles immediately and go to San Francisco.

Mrs. Newman has a son in the northern city. Just before going in search of her husband with a revolver she deeded all her property, valued at $40,000, to her son.

ACCUSES LANDLADY.
Tenant Gets Warrant on Charges of Violating Quarantine Law and Disturbing Peace.

Charged with disturbing the peace and violating the quarantine laws, Mrs. Nellie Stewart of No. 847 Yale street, will appear before Justice Chambers in Police Court today to face trial.

Warriors for the arrest of the woman were issued yesterday, after John Comstock, one of her tenants, had entered complaint.

Comstock's family occupies a small cottage owned by Mrs. Stewart. Several of the members were stricken with scarlet fever. The tenant alleges that Mrs. Stewart became angered because of the illness in the house and annoyed and provoked him by coming into the yard and making unpleasant remarks.

VERDICT OF SUICIDE.
A verdict of death from suicide was returned by a coroner's jury in the case of George Exton, manager of the Exton Music Shop, of West Third street, who shot himself in the head Tuesday morning. The testimony was brief, the employees of the music store giving a short account of the tragedy. Financial worries are said to have caused Exton to end his life. The funeral will be held today.

Anty Drudge Dries Miss Pretty-girl's Tears.

Anty Drudge—"Why, what's the matter, dear? What are you crying about?"
Miss Prettygirl—"Oh, my beautiful new waist is ruined and it just makes me sick. That clumsy Will Johnson upset a plate of refreshments on it last night at the party, and spoiled all my fun."

Anty Drudge—"And his, too, I'll warrant. But dry your eyes, dear. It was all an accident, no doubt, but you feel so badly that you have to blame someone. Now if you had only known of Fels-Naptha you could have passed it off as a joke, enjoyed yourself and spared Will an uncomfortable time."

There's a right way and a wrong way to do everything.

And there is a new way and an old way to do almost everything.

The new way to wash clothes is the Fels-Naptha way—in cool or lukewarm water, no boiling, either in winter or summer, and little rubbing.

And the Fels-Naptha is the right way as well—saves time, saves the back, saves fuel, and the wash comes out cleaner, sweeter, whiter.

It is up to you to choose between the new and the old, the right and the wrong way of doing your washing.

Simple directions for washing and other household cleaning are printed on the inside of the red and green wrapper.

Equitable Savings Bank

3% per annum, computed monthly, on Savings Account subject to check

Our new method of computing interest monthly instead of semi-annually must be thoroughly understood to be appreciated. We inaugurate the plan in order to be as fair as possible to the depositor and to TREAT EVERY DEPOSITOR ALIKE. When you open an account with us, interest begins on the date of opening and is figured on the first of each month thereafter. Whenever you desire to close the account, interest is paid up to the first of the month in which the account is closed. The most interest you lose is for the PORTION OF THE CURRENT MONTH.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

A beautiful and almost perfect presentation of "La Boheme" marked the third performance of the Lambar-di series at the Mason last evening. The cast was the best the impresario has yet given, and the audience, though not of capacity dimensions, was in the main composed of intelligent music lovers, whose enthusiasm was not only sincere but discriminating.

Lambar-
di has produced "La Boheme" many times, but it is doubtful if any series of artists in the work has equalled the all-around effectiveness of the group of last night.

It was a group without stars, or an all-star group, just which you may wish to call it. Ester Ferrabini returns with her exquisite mezzo voice in much better condition than last year. Giardi Grassini, tenor, who made a first appearance last night, gave by far the most satisfying performance of any tenor in the series of evenings given to this date. Modesti brought his mature art and his finely-voiced voice to an apt interpretation of the music of Marcel's role—adding a beautiful touch of personal comedy.

Martino, the leading bass, played Collino, and though very evidently suffering from cold, exhibited enough of his voluminous voice to show that his possession is above the average. And Cecilia Tamanti-Zavach, who scored a distinctly unpleasant impression on Monday evening, redeemed herself in great measure with a bright, sincere and well-sung performance of Musetta.

The writer has observed, during an extended course of opera hearing this season, that stars of world celebrity are apt in many performances to lie uncomfortably back upon their laurels, singing at moments when it interests them to do so, and at other times involuntarily walking through their parts without thinking of the heavy bank of awaiting each on a day.

Here it is different. No one of Lambardi's singers of last evening possessed an American reputation, and each toiled with might and main to make a lasting impression. The result was a performance full of vim and enthusiasm, replete with singing to the best of each participant's ability, and gritted with a very good measure of conventional and extemporaneous acting. The spirit of the production, the evident desire of each man and woman to do his or her utmost in interpreting the composer's thought, was the best characteristic of the whole affair.

Mr. Grassini possesses a small but highly useful lyric voice, a voice free in emission, well placed, and of an especially pleasing quality. In addition, he has intelligence and communicable dramatic presence, so that his interpretation of Rodolfo was a real interpretation, and, without the singing, he would have been marked as a good piece of acting. His singing of "Che gelida manina," in the first act, was exquisitely poetic, and his tone was at all times equal to the demands of Puccini's quickly-flowing and almost conversational music.

Ester Ferrabini's "Mi chiamano Mimi," which followed, was another beautiful thing, but for some reason it did not receive an encore, as was given to the tenor aria just preceding it.
In the Mimi and Musetta of last night the voices were really transported. Ferrabini's voice of mezzo soprano, singing a true soprano part, while Tamanti-Zavach's very light voice was heard in the lower lines of Musetta's music. The casting of the two as they were, however, was not a mistake. For Tamanti-Zavach very well suited to the part of Mu-setta, while Ferrabini has a fine composition of the role of Mimi.

The orchestra was in good shape
last night, and was well handled by Arde Jacchi.
The dramatic value of the work
was maintained to the final curtain, the "business" attending the last scene being especially natural and appropriate.
Tonight Dolores Frau will make her appearance as Carmen, Angelo Antola appearing for the first time this year, as the tenebrous, with Battalion as Don Jose.

Palo Wulman celebrated his twenty-fifth anniversary on the operatic stage yesterday. His debut was made in 1883, as Lotario, in "Mignon."
Harry Alexander, impresario Berry's assistant, left for the north last night, to follow the route laid out for the opera company to travel after leaving Los Angeles.

Oliver Morasco received word from Miss Lillian Albertson yesterday that she would gladly donate her services to the Harry Gladstone fund, which is to be held at the Majestic Theater Friday afternoon, January 15. Miss Albertson expressed a willingness to do anything that might be required of her, and the committee in charge probably will ask her to play with Harry Gladstone in Gilbert's one-act play,
"Sweetheart." Since leaving stock work in Los Angeles, Miss Albertson has won fame throughout the country as the leading feminine role in Eugene Walter's "Paid in Full," which she played for more than a year in New York. Her appearance again in a Los Angeles stage will be trailed with much pleasurable anticipation.

Members of the Burbank stock company held a meeting at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and decided to present at the benefit of the first act of "Raffles," that play being selected as a free every member of the company singing opportunity. Single tickets for two other plays will be given as well. Manager Wyatt, head of the company on Finance, having promised an act from the Mason's attraction for the week, while Manager Morasco has made a similar promise for the attraction at the Majestic.

William Desmond, Florence Stone and Lillian Lamson will present a one-act play by Sir Gilbert Parker, entitled
"Who Calls?"
Henry Stockbridge, Fay Bainter,
Henry Marks and a leading woman whose name has not yet been announced, will present for the first time a one-act play, a one-act comedy, "The Woman," written by Mr. Stockbridge.
Miss Mary Hall, leading woman of the Burbank company, has expressed a willingness to present a scene from one of the classics, in addition to appearing in "Raffles." She probably will offer the scene from "Hamlet," assuming the role of Ophelia.
The company, which she played with E. H.
Johnson and Julia Marlowe, is practically assured that the company's orchestra will have a place in the programme. The De Lano Guitar Club, numbering several members, will contribute several songs also.

Mr. Belmont has offered the services of his orchestra, the "De Lano" is the best in his line since the departure of the "De Lano."
Charmes Brown has volunteered a number of comedy acts from the Orchestra and the "De Lano" will present a number from the Grand Opera. The volunteers are Joseph de Lano, David Edwin, Dr. W.
Johnson, William Stoenner, Paisley and the members of the Fischer company. John H. Blackwood of the De Lano company has promised to do something, though the exact nature of it is not known.

FACTS, FEATURES AND FANCIES FOR WOMEN

BY MISS SYDNEY FORD.

Now is the time to pick up bargains. The wise woman whose purse is limited plans to purchase fashions for her household directly after the holidays. In this way she saves fully one-half. Yesterday I found splendid Munsing suits at a leading department store for 95 cents each. A fortnight ago these same garments were $1.50. Silk and wool undergarments may be had at 55 cents each. Even if your fashions will last the winter through, now is the time to lay in a supply for next fall.

There are radical reductions in suits and coats, too. In a certain shop window, around which the women flocked as if drawn by a magnet, was a stunning creation in white broadcloth, with a white net bodice heavily embroidered in black silk and bordered with long, black fringe. A dirigible skirt and each of black satin finished this charming gown, which is a splendid sample of the black and white effect so much in vogue. Early in the season this model was priced at $75. Now it may be had for $40.

New Shirt Waists.

Are those shirts, or shirt waists? asked a pretty girl as she lingered before a shop window where were displayed the newest tailor-made affairs. Striped percale, cut with masculine plainness and smoothness, devoid of tuck or pleat or any such thing save a natty little breast pocket, and with big, manly-looking pearl buttons down the front, it really wasn't any wonder that the girl was puzzled as to the sex of those waists. But they are for women, and really, they are stunning. They look so trim and neat and smart, and it is such a relief at last to get hold of a waist that is not absolutely white. I always did like the pretty blue or pink striped percale and lake and flannel. The brown stripes, too, were very effective and much in vogue this season. These smart tailor-made waists come at only $2.50.

For dress waists the Persian net are very new and very handsome, embroidered in lovely pastel shades of silk, but for these you must pay—and they are worth it, the prices running from $22.50 up.

Cut on Collars.

Yesterday I picked up handsomely embroidered linen collars, the regular 25-cent value, for 10 cents each. Nor was the supply limited to small or abnormally large numbers, as is often the case in special sales. At one of the Broadway shops a certain table each day contains a stock of goods at bargain prices. One day it will be ribbons, another collars, etc. I always make for that table the minute I enter the store, and I seldom leave without carrying away that thing so dear to the soul of woman—a bargain.

Pigskin Shopping Bags.

Have you seen the elegant new pigskin shopping bags? If not, better go right down and get a glimpse of them. They certainly are worth seeing. And such marvels as they contain. I saw two beauties in the lovely motley pigskin. I am sure they must have been designed by a woman, for no one else could plan such satisfying interior and fittings as those shopping bags have. Really they contain all the toilet accessories. One of them is a little bag measuring not more than five inches in length by about three and a half deep contained a fan, opera glasses, coin purse and a card case and ample space for each to fit into its particular place. The price was $1.50. The other was a bag of seal or the popular vichette or patent leather and are fitted up like regular traveling bags. One was about a foot long and three inches deep, the other was a half brush, cut glass bottle for cold cream, a hand mirror, tiny clothes brush, comb and coin purse, the fringe all gilded in French lacquer. The price was $35. Another had a gold pencil and a couple of memorandum pads on its "inside." Such perfect bags, no admirably equipped for woman's use have not been seen for many a day—not since we thrived on pocket handkerchiefs or more of years ago. Then there are the simple little bags of English morocco lined with moiré silk which come at $7.50.

Stunning Sweaters.

I must speak just one minute of the sweaters. All of them are marked down now and if there is a college girl in your family, make her happy with a sweater coat. By the way, those up-to-date girls have a scheme which works very satisfactorily. Nearly all the college girls are buying the regular men's sweaters coats. They come from a half to a third cheaper and are cut on the same lines as the coats desired. For girls only the latter have side pockets, which are very desirable. A few weeks ago a sweater coat of good quality cost $7, now the same thing may be had for $4.

The Bed Box Wardrobe.

The days of trundle beds are over but here comes an idea, evolved no doubt by some troubled housekeeper in a Harlem flat which is usually so small that even the milk must be condensed, whereby bed boxes are made to play an important part in the modern house. A bed box is a comfortable to have a dust-tight, perfectly made box, furnished with ball rollers, so that it will move easily in any direction, covered in a color matchin' the wall paper, while the frame matches the woodwork of the room.

The box may be long and adapted to princess frocks, or it may be square and big enough for heavy bed hats, or it may be divided into compartments for small things, but it is always low enough to slip under any ordinary bed, and it will solve many a troubling problem for the dweller in cramped spaces.

Household Hints.

Rinse your bath towels after washing in a strong solution of salt and water. The salt is especially good for the towels and what is left in the towel is exhilarating for the skin when used after the bath. A salt water sponge bath every morning the minute you are out of bed tones one up wonderfully. Get a box of sea salt and use it after your bath.

Now is a good time to buy dishes from the Chinese. They are cheap, and they are beautiful. I saw a handsome fifty-piece set of decorated dishes yesterday at one of the big Broadway stores for $3.50—an average of about a dime per dish.

Curtains and comforters, too, are offered at amazingly low prices, as well as sheets and pillow slips. Fine linen-finished seamless sheets may be had now at 75 cents each. These are extra heavy and come with a three-inch hem.

Dining tables, too, have gone down to a crash point. The Christmas dinner is over. I saw at a Main-street furniture store, yesterday, a six-foot, solid oak table, which was priced under $5.00. It had a buffet and dining chairs have dropped in price, too.

Fashionable Fads.

Evening wraps modelled on the Roman toga, with one sleeve, are over the shoulder and falling in rich, soft folds, are very popular.

Some handkerchiefs from Paris are of sheer white lace with a wide border of linen butterflies buttonholed into the corners with white thread.

The vogue for hatbands is trimming is so great that they are beginning to be conspicuous for their absence from exclusive models.

In many of the season's styles the effect of the back of the gown is more elaborate than the front, the empire line accentuating the fact.

Buttons are indeed a feature in themselves this year; in their anxiety to prove themselves genuine, they perforate with holes.

Incidentally, some of the new silk and sable muffs look like a whole fur family, for the foundation is simply covered with hair and tails.

Quantities of fringe are employed on evening gowns, and it also now appears on dinner and street gowns.

Flowers are to some extent regaining their popularity in millinery. In return to more moderate dimensions, though the feathers still have the lead.

AT PHOENIX.
ASSEMBLY TO BE BUSY ONE.

ARIZONA LAWMAKERS WILL MEET JANUARY 18.

Discussion of Statehood Absorbs Much Attention and Gov. Kibbey is Formulating Proposal to Set at Rest Doubts of Those Who Fear Radical Element Will Get Control.

(STAFF CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES)
PHOENIX (Ariz.) Dec. 28.—The twenty-fifth Legislative Assembly of Arizona will meet in Phoenix on the third Monday of January, the 18th. It will be strongly Democratic in both branches. Though Statehood is believed near and there seems no necessity for any notable changes in the laws of the Territory, the session is expected to be even more active than the last, for the fact that the lawmaking than its predecessor, which was somewhat remarkable in that line.

Led by Councilman O'Neill of Maricopa county, there is to be an attack, begun early, on the railroads, which are claimed to be extracting unwarranted tolls from Arizona shippers and travelers. But a number of the legislators, in both houses, are affiliated with the railroads, and their strength is believed sufficient to insure that no anti-railroad legislation gets much farther than reference to a hostile committee. There is much concern, as well, as to the possibility of changing the bullion-tax law, which has resulted in a tremendous increase in the revenues of the Territory and which is generally believed to be a source of public support of the present situation is so strong that any suggestion of lowering the bullion tax would be extremely impolitic on the part of the legislator.

Gov. Kibbey returned Saturday from Washington, where he had been for the greater part of the month. He states his belief that Statehood for Arizona and New Mexico is sure, at some time within eighteen months. Nothing could be done in furtherance of admission before the holidays and there seems some doubt whether a few weeks' delay in the preparation of his message to the Legislature. He may return to Washington soon.

EAST FEARS RADICALS.
The Governor says that one of the chief arguments against Statehood in the East is the presumption that Arizona might evolve a Constitution similar to that which has made Oklahoma notorious. Some authorities must be given Congress and the country at large that conservatism will dominate in the new State proposed.

To assist in forwarding the good work, Gov. Kibbey has completed a draft of an enabling act, which will send to Washington. It provides that after a

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

HAPPY RECOVERY OF LARGE SUM.

THREE THOUSAND DOLLARS PUT IN MAIL BOX.

Chicago Guest at Hotel Thinks Cash Stolen Until Postmaster Returns It. Earthquake Sufferers Remembered. Oak Knoll Property Sold—Debutante Dance—New Instructor.

Office of The Times, No. 24 S. Raymond Ave. PASADENA, Dec. 30.—The name of a hotel on an unaddressed envelope was the clue by which W. B. White, of Chicago, recovered $3,000 yesterday. Early in the day he mailed a number of letters and by accident also put in the box the envelope containing the money. It bore the stamp of Hotel Maryland.

When he missed the $3,000, he thought the bills had been stolen and detectives were consulted and a search of the Maryland made. In collecting the mail from one of the boxes, E. R. Shepp, a carrier, found the unaddressed envelope and turned it over to Postmaster Wood, who returned the contents to the owner.

FOR EARTHQUAKE VICTIMS. Of the $500 remaining from the San Francisco relief fund, the Pasadena Board of Trade yesterday voted to send $300 to the relief of the earthquake sufferers in southern Italy.

MILLIONAIRE DEFENDANT. Richard F. Carman, the millionaire horseman, his son and his blacksmith, were indicted yesterday by Judge Klamroth, Saturday morning, to enter pleas to charges of battery, preferred by Matt Dooley, Carman's former trainer. This is the sequel to an alleged fight at Santa Anita race track last week. Carman was fined $200 by the stewards of the track. Dooley is now in San Francisco, and will lay his grievance before the Pacific Coast Jockey Club, it is said.

The millionaire has the sympathy of many of the residents who are at the hotel in this city, for it is generally believed that there is a clique after his scalp, and that the first step toward shutting him out of racing on the Pacific Coast was refusing his entries at Emeryville.

He says that if racing is stopped by the Legislature in this State, he will send his string to Canada, and then to England.

LOCAL INVENTORS. Two patents have just been granted to Pasadena inventors. L. D. Collins, a blacksmith, is the maker of an auxiliary spring which he has found works well in diminishing the jar of autos. Roscoe Young and Henry Bechtold have been granted a patent for a collar-laundry machine.

Y.M.C.A. RECEPTION. Ice cream, cake and good music are promised by the Y.M.C.A. at the annual reception to the public on New Year's night at the headquarters of the North Main branch. The woman's auxiliary of the association is completing arrangements for the affair, which will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

PHYSICAL DIRECTOR SWARTHOUT has been presented with handsome cuff buttons and a watch to match, by the members of his classes.

NEW INSTRUCTOR ARRIVES. Dr. A. B. Cook, the new head of the French and German departments at Throop Polytechnic Institute, arrived here yesterday. He came from Wakefield College, South Carolina, and was one of the notable educators of the South.

BUYS TO BUILD. Mrs. Alida Selbert has purchased a fine piece of property on Oak Knoll, just off Madison Heights tract, for $7500, and will build a $15,000 residence. The property is located on Madison avenue, opposite the Harkness residence, and adjoins the site recently sold to Dr. James A. E. Scherer, president of Throop Institute. It has a frontage of 100 feet on El Molino avenue, and is 100 feet deep.

PASADENA NEWS NOTES. The Trustees of Alhambra, yesterday, voted $25 to Pasadena as a reward for sending the chemical engine to that city when the hotel burned.

Madame Lillian Nordica, yesterday appeared at a box for the Tournament of Roses, and will entertain a large party of friends.

Twenty-five boxes have been added at Tournament of Roses, and all but four have been sold.

Rev. Dr. Malcolm J. McLeod, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, is expected to return today, after a six months visit in the East and abroad. He is reported to be much improved in health.

Stanford alumni and students are asked to assist in decorating the Stanford entry for the New Year parade. It will be prepared at No. 352 North Lee Robles avenue.

Hotels of the city are making extensive preparations for housing visiting crowds on New Year's. Canadians of the city are asked to communicate with G. B. Nielsen, this morning, in regard to the Canadian boat to be entered.

Among the prominent arrivals at the Green are Mrs. and Mr. W. J. Connelley and son, Roy of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. John R. Ross and daughter, Mrs. Ross is a wealthy lumberman of Chicago who has spent several seasons here. Mr. and Mrs. John T. Greenwood and two daughters of Philadelphia, and Mrs. George R. Thorne of Chicago are also at the Green.

DEBUTANTE DANCE. The Valley Hunt Clubhouse was the scene of a gay debutante dance yesterday evening. It was given by Dr. and Mrs. Henry H. Sherer of South Orange Grove avenue, for their daughter, Miss Margaret.

Bamboo, potted palms and foliage plants adorned the ballroom, where an orchestra furnished music for dancing. Deep red roses and ferns were used in ornamentation of the dining-room with charming effect. Pretty souvenir programs were provided, and in an interval of the dance supper was served.

Besides the younger set, there were present Mr. and Mrs. J. Dawson Taylor, Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Wotkins, Mrs. R. M. Wotkins, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Wotkins, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Connelley, Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Coburn, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Holder, Mrs. L. W. Benton and Dr. Rudolph.

Among the dancers were Misses Sherman, Percy, Wadsworth, Mary Wadsworth, Hawkins, Wotkins, Legge, McEachern, Clayton, Holmes, Percy, Rockwell, MacIntosh, Harrah, Austin, Phillips, Tate, Armstrong, Ross, Barker, Edmonds, Leonard, Barker, Stinchfield, Stehman, Messers, Barker, Farish, Barker, Benton, Backus, Wotkins, May, Taylor, Edmonds, Hull, Bellford, Crispy, Bissell, Compton, Robbins, Fletcher, Bradshaw, Douglas, Dwight, Forster, Stimson, Vothburg, Mc-

PASSENGERS GET FRIGHT.

When a Launch Grounds, Man Carries Fifteen Women to Safety.

LONG BEACH, Dec. 30.—The launch Music, which went to Catalina, this morning, with fifteen women passengers aboard, returned this evening in a heavy fog and went aground about half a mile from the pier. Engineer Spike swam through the breakers and telephoned for assistance. A policeman, meanwhile, swam out to the launch and restored tranquility to the passengers, who were weeping in fright.

Capt. Graves, Clarence Owen and Earnest Michael, in the launch Flyer went to the rescue. They got a line to the Music, but were unable to float her. Then Michael and Owen took a skiff, put the Music's passengers aboard it and started shoreward. Capt. Arthur Paschall, who lives near the scene of the accident, had been aroused by the alarm whistles. He waded out into the surf, met the skiff and carried the fifteen women ashore, one by one. It is expected that the Music will be saved.

BRIDE, BLANKENHORN, DAVID BLANKENHORN, Stohman, Lockwood, Paul Hunter, Bissell, Harlan Crispy, William Taylor and Rohm. Col. James E. Montgomery of Bellefontaine street entered with a dinner last evening at Hotel Maryland, complimentary to Lieut.-Gen. Adna R. Chaffee. The dinner was served in the music room, which was decorated in a patriotic fashion. Festoons of asparagus, plumos made an airy network under the beamed ceiling, and tiny American flags were caught in the bathery green, red and white bunting was artistically draped about standards, and red and white carnations were used as table decoration. Grandeur, brightly beaded upon the wall, which was emblazoned the American shield, and napkins folded to represent sherry tents, from the peak of which floated an American flag, combined to produce a charming table ornamentation.

Covers were laid for Brig.-Gen. W. A. Alexander, Gen. Vile, Gen. W. A. Robbe, Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, Mr. Henry Sherry, Col. G. H. Munson, Col. A. H. Sellers, Dr. Boardman Hill, Lawrence Hubert, Charles Frederick Holder, Rev. Leslie R. Learned, Dr. David Van Sledright, Louis Elmer, John Bakerwell Phillips, Charles Gilbert, Harrison M. Lutz and Hugh E. Montgomery.

INJURED WHILE PLANTING.

Pomona Ranchman's Shoulder Broken by Fall from Seat of Seeder.

POMONA, Dec. 30.—Robert Steele, who farms hundreds of acres of grain land west of here met with a serious accident yesterday afternoon. He was driving a large seeder on a side hill, fell from his seat and sustained a broken shoulder and injury to hip.

Lee R. Matthews has traded a fifty-acre alfalfa ranch east of Giffney avenue, with Franklin McLaughlin, the latter's former home place of thirteen and a half acres on South Giffney avenue and Franklin street, giving anything and everything for the Giffney place contains a six-room house, barn, windmill and outbuildings.

HOME FOR FOREMAN. A. B. Hill has just completed a six-room house for his foreman on his large ranch east of the historic oak tree on East Holt avenue.

Work is being rushed by Contractor Grant McCain upon the city stable and corral. The stables are located on White avenue north of the railroad tracks and will cost over $600. All of the horses, implements and wagons of the city department will be kept there.

Steps are being taken to organize a Masonic Council of Royal and Select Masters.

TO BUILD RINGALOW. F. W. Pierce, son of E. M. Pierce, former owner of Hotel Palomares, has bought a lot on Laurel avenue, west of Huntington boulevard, in the Garbosa Park tract and will erect a building for housing and other uses.

Landscape gardeners and cement workers are laying out the campus grounds of the new San Antonio grand celebration at the corner of Kingsley and San Antonio avenues.

SOUTH PASADENA, Dec. 30.—Last evening, the Masonic Lodge, which installed these officers: John W. Shank, Jr., W. M.; C. W. Wilson, S. W.; W. C. Brandt, Treasurer, and John N. Hunt, Secretary. A pleasing feature of the occasion was the presentation of the master jewel to A. A. Eadden, the retiring worshipful master.

J. Donohue, of the South Gate Lodge, of Los Angeles, told of his experiences while visiting English Masons, and Rev. W. K. Beane also gave short addresses.

Mrs. G. D. Darvall, sister of A. A. Eadden, cashier of the First National Bank, arrived last evening from West Union, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Helms and son of Brawley, are spending the holidays with Mrs. Anna Helms of Virginia Place.

The Christian Sunday-school has donated $121 towards the building fund of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Morton and family, of Palo Alto, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Tague of Santa Paula, are visiting Mrs. Florence Collins, sister of Mr. Tague, who played in more than half of the league basketball games, last year, and all the sports in the basketball team who played in more than half of the league games have received congratulations.

CHIEF OF POLICE DENIES GRAFT.

CHARGE MADE BY REPORTER IS DECLARED GROUNDSLESS.

No Secret About Fees Received at Long Beach in Justice Court Cases. Money Used as Benefit Fund—Natalist Finds Skeletons of Whales That Once Walked.

LONG BEACH, Dec. 30.—Chief of Police Williams is greatly incensed at the charge, made by a reporter of an afternoon newspaper, that there is graft in his department. The charge is based on a receipt held by Justice Hart for $25, and signed by Sgt. Fred B. Kutz. The claim is made that the police, instead of prosecuting criminal cases in the Police Court, take them "before a justice, thereby benefiting by the fees."

Chief Williams says, and he is corroborated by the Police Commission, that these fees have been turned over to the police benefit fund.

In past year, the City Marshal was always a deputy constable and collected fees for State cases. When Williams took charge, he thought the advice of the City Attorney as to the disposition of State cases, and was told to turn them over to the justice courts, as if they were tried in the Police Court, the city would have to pay the cost of the jury trials. The Chief secured an appointment as deputy constable, and in all State cases, he has been paid for his services in the fees. These have been turned into the benefit fund, of which Kutz is treasurer. Into this fund, also, go all rewards.

The money is used in purchasing supplies and furnishings for the department, clubs, hats and uniforms for the men, in buying a set of the penal code, in fixing up a rogues' gallery and in paying substitutes for regular patrolmen who get sick and for paying expenses incurred in working up both city and State cases. It has also been used in relieving several cases of destitution.

Kutz is on duty at the desk all day and seldom makes an arrest. Some time ago, he had occasion to call the reporter who makes the graft charge for riding his bicycle on the sidewalk. He had occasion to call the reporter who makes the graft charge for riding his bicycle on the sidewalk. LIGHTING CONTRACT AWARDED. The Edison Electric Company was this morning awarded the contract for lighting the city for one year. Its bid averaged 50 cents per light cheaper for each light than was paid under the three-year contract which is just expiring. Under the new contract, the city will pay $5.60 a month for each arc light on an all-night schedule, 75 cents a month for each incandescent street lamp and 5 cents per kilowatt hour for lights used in public buildings.

T. McGinnis of Los Angeles has sold to Councilman J. H. Robinson 194 acres on the electric line between San Bernardino and Redlands for $100,000. In part payment, the Councilman gives his home and other property in this city, amounting to $20,000.

STAY FAKER CAUGHT. W. H. Austin, who carried a "black jack" and a tin star labeled "detective," was arrested today and charged with carrying concealed weapons and impersonating an officer. Austin used the name of a detective in order to gain admission to the theaters and shows on the Pike. He claims that he is a detective in the Los Angeles Police Agency of Los Angeles, and has jurisdiction in Long Beach and Pomona Valley.

A year's trial, the Council has decided that the office of captain of police is unnecessary, and an ordinance was passed to the effect that a meeting of the force will be in the hands of the Chief and two sergeants.

RECENT RESIDENCES. F. C. Roberts has been appointed a Chamber of Commerce committee to act on the proposed relocation of the northeastern part of the city in presenting to the Pacific Electric a petition with 700 names, asking for extension of the system on Seventh street and north to the cemeteries.

The bridge drawbridge across the mouth of the San Gabriel River was partially tested again today. Some minor adjustments are still necessary.

RECENT RESIDENCES. Miss Letitia Terry, teacher at the Carroll Park School, has resigned to accept a position as instructor of music in the Redlands schools. She left today for her new home.

RECENT RESIDENCES. E. E. Farwood died here today after a short illness. He was 50 years old, and a native of Iowa. The body will be sent to Sterling, Kan., for burial.

MINING MAN TO BE TRIED. Henry Garner, secretary of the Garner Gold and Copper Mining Company, San Bernardino, who is charged with having issued a check for $50 to Walter Harris, a Los Angeles clothier, when he had no funds in bank to meet it, is to be tried today before Justice Hart.

A. G. Davis left this morning for Elkhart, Ind., to investigate threatening letters which his father is receiving from "Black Hand" sources.

WHALES ONCE WALKED? Leo G. Haase, a collector of curios, who came here recently from Pasadena, has made what he regards as a remarkable find in the hills around San Pedro. He has discovered the report of a petrified whale head owned by a man named Sepulveda, who was taken back on the hills and shown many heads and nearly complete skeletons of whales. He says the remains belong to a period of 100,000 years ago. One of the heads has been sold to a Chicago museum, and is being packed for shipment.

HOLLYWOOD. Dec. 30.—An ordinance has been passed by the Trustees of the city of Hollywood, Jan. 1 to transfer $5000, the balance remaining in the fire department fund, to the general fund, to be used in lighting and maintaining the streets.

The election of directors of the Board of Trade will be held the third Monday in January. The following have been put in nomination: C. C. Wade, Edward Winterer, A. Z. Taft, E. H. Hamilton, G. C. Van Nest, Thomas C. Cooke, J. H. Hamilton, S. Phelps, A. E. Merrill, E. Foster, C. E. Togerman.

The auto fire engine will appear in the New Year's day parade at Pasadena.

A few days spent at Arrowhead Hot Springs will put you in perfect physical shape for the holidays.

OUR FRIENDS AFAR. True Status of the Women of Nippon Explained. Social Conditions, Customs and Peculiarities.

Mistaken Notions Corrected by One Who Knows.

BY J. RUSSELL KENNEDY. (SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT OF THE TIMES.)

TOKIO, Dec. 3.—In observing the woman in Japan society it must be borne in mind that what appears on the surface is mostly the reverse of actual conditions. A correct estimate of the social relationship of man and woman in Japan cannot be formed without a careful study of home life, which to an alien is very hard to understand, or even to see.

Reports sent abroad by foreign observers have mostly been founded on what could be seen and judged according to our standards. For instance, when a husband and wife are seen walking on the streets the latter is almost always the parcel-bearer, and the husband goes free handed, generally a few steps ahead of the wife as if she were his servant. Again, in going into a house or room, it is the husband who enters first and the wife follows him. The seat of honor is always occupied by the gentleman. The woman is apt to infer, therefore, that women in Japan are not duly respected and are under the iron hand of man. Nothing could be farther from the truth.

Again, in going into a house or room, it is the husband who enters first and the wife follows him. The seat of honor is always occupied by the gentleman. The woman is apt to infer, therefore, that women in Japan are not duly respected and are under the iron hand of man. Nothing could be farther from the truth.

There are exceptions, of course, but the Japanese woman is so educated that the less she can show of her influence over husband the better, for according to our standards, for instance, when a husband and wife are seen walking on the streets the latter is almost always the parcel-bearer, and the husband goes free handed, generally a few steps ahead of the wife as if she were his servant. NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

SHE TRIES TO KILL OFFICERS.

Desperate Fight of "Queen of Bootleggers."

Surprised in Lonely Gulch, Woman Draws Gun.

Convicted of Selling Fire Water to Indians.

SAN BERNARDINO, Dec. 30.—Mrs. Paula Marcus, known throughout this section as the "Queen of the Bootleggers," was taken into custody yesterday afternoon in the Whitewater region east of Banning, by Special Agents Ben DeCreeve and Special Officer Andrews of the Southern Pacific. She is charged with furnishing fire water to the Indians and Mexicans employed by the railroad. Mrs. Marcus fought desperately and but for the quickness of Officer Andrews both men would probably have paid with their lives for attempting her arrest. When surprised in a lonely gulch, where she and a companion named Mera had cached a large quantity of liquors, the woman leaped behind a boulder and drawing a revolver, took aim at the Indian agent. Before she could press the trigger, Andrews struck the weapon from her grasp. Then commenced a savage struggle, the woman using her hands, feet and teeth and tried to draw a knife. The officers finally overpowered her, just as Mera appeared. He was quickly handcuffed. The prisoners were taken to Banning, where they pleaded guilty and were sent to jail for six months.

NOT MUCH ROMANCE.

Another "child marriage" has ended unhappily. This morning, Chester John Gordon, 21 years old, who was married to 15-year-old Anne Bell Belburn, three years ago, began an action for divorce in the Superior Court, charging desertion. Several months ago the couple separated, and furnished the public with a series of sensational headlines. The police frequently were called by the girl's mother to lay trouble.

MIGHTY HUNTER.

Leroy Kent, though but a youth, is proving himself a mighty hunter, and at the same time is thinning the Rios Mountains section of wild cats and coyotes. He sells the hides to tourists at Riverside. Kent lives at the Cammermeier. Within the past week he has caught twenty-one wild cats and nine coyotes.

IN FLOWERS TO SMOTHER.

Pasadena's Rose Tournament Ready to Start.

Wonderful Blossom Decked Floats in Parade.

Races, Barbecue and Other Fine Features.

Tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock sharp the directors of the Pasadena Tournament of Roses promise to start the twentieth annual parade. With a promise of clear skies, a magnificent display of flowers and in more abundance than for the past three years, the indications are that it will prove one of the greatest floral fetes in the history of the Crown of the Valley.

The entries are of great interest and there are more of them than ever. Many professional decorators have been employed on the floats, while some of the best amateurs, who have won fame and prizes in fete in the past, are preparing a large number of special entries.

The parade will form on South Orange Grove avenue, above California street, and will go north to Colorado street, thence east to Fair Oaks avenue, south on Fair Oaks avenue to Vineyard street, east on Vineyard street to Raymond avenue, thence north to Colorado street and west to Fair Oaks avenue, thence north to Holly street, east to Raymond avenue, south again to Colorado, east on Colorado street to Mentor avenue, south on Mentor avenue to San Pasqual street and thence to Tournament Park.
